Billy Bryan Still Promoting Harmony in His Party.

Republicans of Ohio Are Getting Ready to Hold Their Convention.

THE JAMES HOWARD TRIAL

BRYAN STILL HOISTS.

Kansas City, April 21.—In his speech on "Democracy" at the banquet here, tendered to William J. Stone, William J. Bryan bitterly denounced Grever Cleveland. He said he had the best chance since Jackson's day, but disgraced himself when the party's salvation was within him.

OHIO REPUBLICAN CONVENTION

Columbus, O., April 21.—Republican leaders in Ohio are gathered at Columbus arranging for the state convention. Chairman Hanna will call the meeting to order and read the keynote in his speech, and Senator Foraker will be permanent chairman.

RECALLED NOTHING

Frankfort, April 21.—Yontsey was recalled by the defense today in the Howard trial, but nothing important developed from the testimony.

THE POSTOFFICE

INVESTIGATIONS.

Washington, April 21.—The investigators' sleuths have reached the administrative office of First Assistant Postmaster General Wynne. Heretofore they have had to do only with big divisions under him. But now are scrutinizing charges that he violated the civil service rules to secure places for relatives.

HEAVY DAMAGE FROM RIVER.

Evansville, April 21.—The river is now half a foot above the danger line marking 35.5. Low farm lands are being submerged and a crop planting has ended. It is believed much heavy damages will result.

TO ARBITRATE.

Chicago, April 21.—Two thousand striking picture frame makers have decided to return to work pending settlement by arbitration.

ELECTED CARNIVAL QUEEN.

Harrodsburg, April 21.—Miss Wilma Bryant has been elected queen of the Old Fellow's carnival to be held in Harrodsburg.

RECEIVED BY THE KING.

London, April 21.—General Leonard Wood was today received in audience by King Victor Emmanuel.

NOTICE I. O. O. F.—All members of Ingleside Hebrew lodge are urged to be present tonight as initiation and preparations for going to Cairo. Katie Hazen, N. G. Maggie Williams, Sec.

GETS A GOOD CHAIR.

New York, April 21.—Prof. John H. Finley of Princeton has been elected president of the college of the city of New York.

GIVES AWAY FORTUNE.

Baltimore, April 21.—Frier S. Donovan, 84, who is preparing for the priesthood at Woodstock, Md., has given his fortune of $150,000 to the Jesuit order.

NARROW ESCAPE

FROM LYNCHING.

Nashville, Tenn., April 21.—Henry Bereng, colored, narrowly escaped being lynched by a mob of his own race at Franklin, Tenn. He was saved only by removal to Nashville by the sheriff.

STRIKE ALL OFF.

New York, April 21.—The threatened strike of employees of the "L" roads in New York has been settled.

SUGAR GOES UP.

New York, April 21.—The prices of all grades of refined sugar advanced five cents a hundred pounds.

DROVE OFF THE EMBANKMENT

Owensboro, April 21.—Horace Hogan of near Owensboro, while on his way home, drove off an embankment and was killed.

DROWNED OFF BOAT

Runaway Boy Meets With a Tragic End in Paducah.

It Is Almost Certain That He Fell Into the River From the Steamer.

HIS HOME WAS IN ST. LOUIS

Was Willie Reed, of St. Louis, drowned off the Dick Fowler this morning?

This is the question that the Paducah police are trying to solve. The watchman and one of the deckhands on the Fowler state that he was.

Reed was a thirteen year old boy who ran away from a St. Louis home last week, according to the story he told Marshal Crow yesterday. He was found in the outskirts of the city by Officer Thad Terrill yesterday and taken to police headquarters.

He was questioned by Marshal Crow and Lieutenant Harlan and stated that he left home last week with a young man about 22 years old, who wore two suits of clothing, and had a number of rings to sell. He said they had "diamonds" in them, and that last Friday the man attempted to make him, the boy, go out and sell one of the rings for $5, and when he refused to do it, drove him away, and that he had not since seen the man.

He admitted that he ran away from home and said he lived at 1218 Spruce street, St. Louis, that his father was a house wrecker, and that he had an uncle named Jim Reed on an snagboat somewhere. His manner, and the evident nervousness he displayed caused the police to doubt his story and Marshal Crow telegraphed the chief of police at St. Louis for information.

The boy was told to remain in the marshal's office until a reply was received, but he slipped out when no one was watching him. He said before he left that he wanted to go back home, and that he thought he could work his way on the City of Memphis, then due.

It seems so intended to do this, as he went to the wharf. He got aboard the Dick Fowler some time after she reached the city from Cairo, and went back in the engine room to keep warm. The watchman, Mr. Henry Counts, of 208 South Sixth street, was at work in the engine room, and after asking the boy about himself, he gave him some good fatherly advice about staying at home hereafter, and allowed him to lie down on the foot box and go to sleep. It was about 2 o'clock that Mr. Counts had his talk with the boy, and about 4 o'clock the boy sleepily got up. Mr. Counts asked him if he got cold, and he replied that he did. He then walked around near the pitman hole, and was warned not to go too far. The watchman thought the boy intended to crawl into the fireman's hut, where he could sleep longer, and proceeded with his work of sawing some blocks. A few moments after he saw the boy crawl through the pitman hole, he heard a splash, and a colored deck hand about the same time said the boy had fallen overboard, as he heard the splash and the boy exclaim "oh" as he struck the cold water.

Mr. Counts immediately acceded a skiff and rowed as far as the incline hoping that the boy had managed to swim to bank some where, but he could not find a trace of him. He says that there is not a particle of doubt but that the boy was drowned. He thinks the boy was possibly asleep, or at least nearly so.

Marshal Crow thinks it possible that the boy was afraid he would be arrested on advice from St. Louis and simply played a trick to throw off the police. He does not know, however. The boy seemed to be worried somewhat when told yesterday that the chief of police at St. Louis had been telegraphed regarding him.

Today his drowning was telegraphed to St. Louis, and more will probably be learned about him shortly. If he was drowned, which seems probable from the statement of Watchman Counts, his body is near the wharf, and will soon be recovered.

SPARKS SENT BACK

Paducah Men Who Lost Diamonds Get Them Back.

Wm. King, Alleged Diamond Thief, Is Now out on Bond.

WAS RELEASED THIS MORNING

The two gentlemen who last week had their diamonds stolen on board the monitor Arkansas have recovered them. The police knew very little about the case, but say that the diamonds were sent here from another city and turned over to the owners.

Friends of William King, who today waived examination in the police court and was held in the sum of $500 are here and will probably arrange a bond for him and he will be released. In fact, it is said that the day after his arrest King had friends here quietly at work for him. He did not want a trial then, but waited until things shaped themselves. They seem to be pretty well shaped up now.

It is probable that those who belong to gangs such as King is alleged to belong to stick to one another. A $500 bond is not a very steep one for men who can nip several hundred dollars worth of diamonds in one day. If convicted he would doubtless be given several years, and a slick man can steal enough diamonds in a year to forfeit several $500 bonds.

At any rate, there is something doing in King's case, but the police say they don't know what it is. They say they have heard the stolen diamonds were returned and that King gave bond, which is his legal right if he can. Once out of jail they never expect to see him again in Paducah.

It is not believed by those on the inside that King is the guilty man, although it seems he was in the crowd as his friends have come to the scene.

Shortly before noon today King gave bond, which was reduced, in the sum of $150, it having been reduced at the court house. His attorney, Mr. J. Wheeler Campbell, became his surety.

VICTORY FOR COMPANIES

IMPORTANT DECISION HANDED DOWN BY DISTRICT COURT.

Topeka, Kan., April 21.—An important decision was rendered by the district court there denying an injunction against fire insurance companies doing business in Kansas on the ground that they were violating the anti-trust act.

Recently the state brought action under the anti-trust law against these companies, charging that they had combined and were parties to a trust to control the cost of rates of insurance.

Mrs. Anna B. Robertson left today for Jackson, Tenn., to reside.

TO BUILD EXTENSION

Armour & Co., Will Probably Build an Addition Shortly.

Business Has Been Very Great—Will Take Up River Front Property.

NO NEW PACKING PLANT HERE

It is reported on good authority that Armour & Co. contemplate a big addition to their plant on the river front. The company has found this a fine territory, and its business in Paducah is said to be almost as large as that at St. Louis, owing to the vast territory for which the local plant is a distributing point.

According to reports the company finds as extension of its facilities here imperative, and will soon commence the erection of another building on the property now occupied by it at First and Broadway. If this is done it will probably permanently shut out the city so far as its securing the property for a wharf is concerned, as a building on the property would so enhance its value, which is said to be about $18,000 now, that the city would probably never condemn and buy it.

An ordinance is now before the local boards providing for steps for the condemnation of the remaining vacant property for wharf purposes, but it is probable that, as the city cannot take charge of the property until it pays for it, and it has no money this year with which to pay for it, the new building will be erected before any action can be taken, and the city thus checkmated.

It is reported that an agent for the Hammond Packing Co. of Chicago, now in the city, has given out the information that his company intended to build a distributing house here, probably alongside the railroad on the river front somewhere, but this is regarded as hot air, as Armour some time ago bought out the Hammond company.

It is understood that Armour & Co. are willing to begin work on the addition as soon as they can lease the remainder of the property from the Illinois Central.

VESTRYMEN ELECTED

MEETING HELD YESTERDAY AT GRACE CHURCH.

At the parish meeting of Grace Episcopal church held last evening the following vestrymen for the ensuing year were elected:

Messrs. M. B. Nash, Sr., Ed P. Noble, Alex. Kirkland, Cook Husbands, Ned Baker, W. F. Bradshaw, Jr., Dr. W. M. Cewgill, Dr. R. A. Hicks.

Mr. Jeff Rowlett, of Murray, who has been in the city on business, left at noon for Louisville.

A LIVELY MIX UP

Former Congressman and Editor Come to Blows.

Hon. Charles K. Wheeler and Mr. James E. Wilhelm Fight in Front of the Postoffice.

NEITHER SERIOUSLY HURT

A rather sensational encounter occurred about 12:10 o'clock this afternoon on Broadway near Fifth street in front of the postoffice, when former Congressman Charles K. Wheeler and Mr. James E. Wilhelm of the Register, engaged in a difficulty.

The trouble occurred at the bottom of the postoffice steps, and lasted only a few moments. Officers Nance and Whitehurst were on a passing car, and seeing the blows exchanged jumped out and rushed over to the belligerents. Mr. Wheeler was taken in charge by Officer Nance and friends and Mr. Wilhelm by Officer Whitehurst and friends, but they were recognized for their appearance and released. Very few people knew of the trouble, there not being very many in that locality at the time.

Mr. Wilhelm stated to a reporter in regard to the fight that he was on his way home to dinner and started into the postoffice to mail some letters when Mr. Wheeler, who was coming from an opposite direction, accosted him and said: "What did you write that article for?"

"Because I wanted to," was the reply.

"Well, I propose to whip you," rejoined the other, to which Mr. Wilhelm replied, "Light in, then."

Mr. Wheeler, he said, struck him a glancing blow on the left cheek and at the same time kicked at him, and stepped from the bottom step on which he had been standing. Mr. Wilhelm stated that he dodged, and about that time struck Mr. Wheeler in the face, and was struck by Mr. Wheeler in the month. They then partly eluded and Mr. Wilhelm states Mr. Wheeler attempted to bend him over on the fence and while holding his hands strike him, but they were then separated.

Mr. Wheeler was seen at his home at Fifth and Court, but said he had no statement to make. He bore no marks of the encounter.

Mr. Wilhelm has a slight cut in his under lip and a bruise on the side of his face.

It seems that an article in this morning's Register provoked the difficulty. It calls Mr. Wheeler a "shyster." The two had an altercation a few years ago, but did not come to blows.

SERIOUS INJURIES.

RESULT FROM A FALL DOWN STAIRS.

Thomas Daly, a blacksmith, fell down the stairs at the Senate saloon on South Second street last night about 7 o'clock and broke two ribs and badly bruised himself in the legs and chest.

Daly had wandered up the stairs and no one knew he was in the house. Mr. Dicke, the proprietor, heard something fall downstairs, and going to the door saw Daly lying there. City Physician Rivers was summoned and after making an examination found the man's ribs had been broken and that he was probably internally injured, although the latter has not yet been definitely decided. Daly is no better today.

NEARLY COMPLETE

SUPERINTENDENT KLINE TO RETURN TO NEW YORK FRIDAY.

Mr. W. J. Kline, who has been here for several months superintending the holding of the steam heating plant leaves for his home in Buffalo Friday. His work is about complete, but he may return some time to superintend an extension of the plant. He says he likes Paducah and the people, and hopes to come back soon.

HAD A SIDE SWIPE

A Switch Engine and Freight Train Struck Today.

No One Hurt—General Manager Coming Tomorrow Some Time.

SOME MINOR RAILROAD NEWS

An Illinois Central switch engine, No. 1561, in charge of Foreman McQuiter, Engineer Charles Kittinger and Fireman Charles Martin, backed into freight engine No. 21 pulling freight train No. 185 in charge of Conductor J. D. Farrington, Engineer Phil Cethelmer and Fireman T. E. Hughes, this morning about 6 o'clock at the yard office switches and wrecked both engines pretty badly but fortunately injuring no one.

The switch engine had been at the coal chute unloading seven cars and was backing down with the empties just as the freight train was coming around the curve to get in to the yards. The engineer of the freight saw that the switch was open and stepped his engine but the switch engine's air apparatus refused to work and it smashed into the head of the freight. The trucks of the former engine were torn loose and turned across the tracks blocking both the first and second tracks, the latter the main line. The wrecker was called out and in an hour and a half cleared the main line and enabled the passenger trains to pass without delay. The rear of the switch engine is badly wrecked, but the head of the freight engine escaped great damage. One reason the damage was not great is because the impact was principally a "side swipe."

Information was today received that Second Vice President J. T. Harahan and General Manager Rawn will arrive tomorrow some time on a special train. The exact time has not yet been learned, but the visit will no doubt be made tomorrow.

A meeting of the building committee of the Illinois Central hospital board is called for tomorrow afternoon for the purpose of opening bids for various improvements to be made at the hospital this year.

The inspection by I. C. officials is not expected now before tomorrow. The officials are coming through on a special and little is known of the whereabouts of the train and the time it will arrive here.

Mr. R. N. Prather, of the local I. C., was taken ill yesterday and sent to the hospital.

STRUCK CHURCH

Great Excitement Caused by Lightning.

One Good Brother Thought It Struck Him, But It Was the Plastering.

Sunday afternoon about 3 o'clock, while Elder Milton Elliott was preaching in the Methodist church house at Pryorburg, Graves county, lightning struck the house. The bolt struck the roof in the front of the house near the organ and deflected to the gutter, following the gutter at the edge of the roof to the rear of the house. Where it first struck a great many shingles were knocked off and some plastering. One man was hit in the back with a piece of plastering and exclaimed that has been hit, thinking he had been struck by the lightning. Although several were severely jarred, no one was seriously hurt. After things quieted down the meeting proceeded.

MILLIONAIRE OPERATED UPON.

New York, April 21.—H. H. Rogers, the Standard Oil millionaire, was operated upon for appendicitis. He withstood the operation well, but on account of the patient's age, 60 years, his condition is considered grave.

At the Price of Suffering.

Woman on her way to semi-invalidism caused by pregnancy suffers much pain. Ignorance prompts her to suffer alone in silence and remain in the dark as to the true cause—motherhood.

Mother's Friend

It is a liniment for external use only. It would indeed be shameful if the sacrifice of modesty were necessary to the successful issue of healthy children. All women about to become mothers need send only to a drug store and for $1.00 secure the price childbirth remedy. Healthy babies are the result of using Mother's Friend.

CLEW TO THE MAFIA VICTIM.

BELIEVED TO BE A FRENCH- CANADIAN NAMED MORRISSETTI.

New York, April 21—It is now believed that the Mafia victim found in the barrel last week was a French-Canadian named Morrisetti, from Norwich, Conn. His wife and brother are coming here to identify the body if possible.

All the Italian suspects in the case were arraigned in the Jefferson market police court this morning, but, after a conference with Secret Service Agent Flynn, Magistrate Barlow refused to dismiss any of them. He held the thirteen for examination tomorrow morning without going into the evidence.

FRENCH CONTRACT

KENTUCKY GROWERS WILL PROBABLY GET IT AGAIN.

Sealed bids for the delivery of tobacco to the French Regie will be received in New York the first week in May by the agents of the French government. Kentucky growers have been awarded the contracts for several years. Most of the tobacco is shipped from Clarksville, Tenn. A large quantity, however, is shipped from this city.

LOW RATES WEST AND NORTHWEST.

Commencing February 15 and continuing daily until April 30, the Illinois Central railroad company will sell one-way second class colonists' tickets from Paducah to Billings, Helena, Missoula, Ogden, Salt Lake, Spokane, Portland, Tacoma, Seattle and intermediate points at extremely low rates, with stop-over privileges west of the first colonist point. For further information apply to J. T. DONOVAN, Agent, Paducah, Ky.

COUNCIL IN SESSION

Regular Meeting Held With All Members Present.

Hot Shot Fired Into the State Administration—Proposition to Compromise Bond Suit.

SEVERAL ORDINANCES PASSED

The councilmanic board met last night with all members present.

A proposition was submitted to the city through Bloomfield & Grice from Roberts & Co., of New York, the bond brokers who bought the over-the-river refunding bonds several years ago, but did not get them because the city subsequently broke its contract by refusing to refund the bonds, offering to compromise their $10,000 damage suit for $4,000 provided the proposition is accepted within 60 days. It was referred to the finance committee.

The question of refunding $120,000 in city bonds at 3 1/2 per cent was referred back to the finance committee. No one submitted bids for the bonds at the rate of interest the city wants.

An extension to June 1 was granted Contractor Ed Terrell to grade and gravel West Madison and Harrison streets.

A motion to send representatives of the city to Frankfurt to protest against an increase in McCracken county's assessment prevailed. County Judge Lightfoot suggested it in a communication, and Councilman Fowler fired some hot shots at the Democratic state administration. He said that it was rotten as hell itself, and he was in favor of tearing down the state house or putting honest men in office. That McCracken and Fulton counties were about the only self-sustaining counties in this part of the state and yet Auditor Coulter, of Graves, the worst proper county in Western Kentucky, takes particular pains to prevent McCracken's assessment ever being reduced, although Graves county is given all she wants. He said the Frankfurt officials are political robbers.

City Clerk Patterson was authorized to secure assistance in getting ready the tax books.

A number of accounts were allowed on motion of Chairman Fowler, of the finance committee.

The ordinance fixing the salary of health officer at $600 was given second passage.

The ordinance giving the steam heating company permission to excavate under Broadway at Fifth street instead of Fourth was passed. The company has already excavated under Fifth, although the ordinance now calls for Fourth. It is desirous of going under Fourth street in order to escape having to do it later on, after Fourth street is paved, but the city refused permission.

The ordinance authorizing the condemnation of necessary property for opening Husbands street from Third to Fourth was given final passage.

Also the ordinance ordering that Fourteenth street be graveled from Broadway to Monroe.

The ordinance requiring bondsmen to certify to their financial fitness before becoming surety, was referred for revision.

The ordinance providing for the condemnation of Illinois Central ground on Clark street for opening the street, was passed on its first reading.

Final passage was given the ordinance providing for the condemnation of property for opening Fountain avenue to the Wheeler property.

Final passage was given the ordinance providing for the condemnation of river front railroad property for a wharf.

The fire and police committee appointed to investigate the claim of Marshal Crow for money due the marshal on floors, etc., while the injunction suit was pending, recommended that the claim be refused, alleging that it was not correct, and that costs had been charged up against the city in cases where the marshal carried none, and was entitled to none.

The claim was refused in order that it can be taken into the courts and tested, if desired.

A fire plug was ordered placed at Fountain avenue and Monroe street. Water mains were ordered extended to Clements street.

The city, on motion of Dr. J. G. Brooks, decided to pay the bill of $47.50 for instruments for the city hospital purchased by City Physician Rivers. It was claimed without authority. A number of regular reports were

WHAT A BLESSING.

MANY PEOPLE IN PADUCAH ARE LEARNING TO APPRECIATE.

What a blessing it is. Sought after by thousands. Paducah is finding it out. Many a miserable man is happy now.

Nights of unrest, days of trouble. Any itching skin disease means this. Itching piles mean it. Eczema just as bad and just as hard to cure.

But Doan's Ointment relieves at once and cures all itchiness of the skin.

A blessing to a suffering public. Here's Paducah proof to back our statement:

Mr. L. H. Fitzgugh of 323 Jefferson street, dealer in typewriting machines, says: "I am only too pleased to recommend Doan's Ointment to anyone suffering from piles, either itching, bleeding or protruding. Any remedy which gives such effective relief as Doan's Ointment deserves the endorsement of the public. For eight or ten years I was a victim of this annoying trouble and until I procured Doan's Ointment at DuBois, Kolb & Co.'s drug store and used it I never got any permanent relief."

Sold by all dealers. Price 50 cents per box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name, Doan's, and take no other.

read and filed.

The proposition of Mr. L. S. DuBois to have laid and covered drain pipe along Broadway beyond Fountain avenue if the city would furnish the pipe was accepted.

The saloon license of Ed Eaker on North Tenth was transferred to O. H. Averitt, Ed Singleton was granted a license at 1011 Washington street, and the Paducah Distilling company a quart license at 103 South Second.

The city attorney reported that the city was not responsible for the attorney's fee incurred by the marshal and prosecuting attorney in fighting for their rights in the courts. The report was concurred in.

The city clerk read the appointment of the Registrar Publishing company city printer by Prosecuting Attorney Jesse Gilbert.

Acting Solicitor Wheeler stated that he didn't think the prosecuting attorney had anything to do with making the appointment, and the matter was finally referred to the solicitor for a report.

The matter of who shall keep up Yeiser park, the city or the county, was referred to the park committee.

Mr. W. E. Cochran was given permission to move a building off Clay street.

The question of selling city property on Clay street, adjoining Dr. James Lang's property was referred to the mayor. The offer of $800 of Mr. W. E. Cochran was deemed too low.

The engineer was ordered to investigate the advisability of graveled the alley from Seventh to Eighth between Clark and Adams.

On motion it was ordered that an ordinance be brought in taxing boot-blacks.

It was ordered that four police officers be detailed to make sanitary inspections this year. The move originated in the upper board.

The board then adjourned.

GRAND ROMANTIC OPERA.

TO BE GIVEN AT MISS HAYS' BENEFIT RECITAL.

An extract from a grand romantic opera in three acts will be given at Miss Hays' benefit recital Wednesday, April 26. The opera has been condensed for this occasion, thereby giving the brightest and prettiest selections. The cast consists of: The Princess—soprano Miss Hays The Prince—tenor Prof. Dodd The Fairy—contralto Mrs. Weille The Rival—bass Mr. Hagby

This is a feature that is not commonly introduced in recitals, and is sure to please all. Don't miss it.

NOT LOCATED

MR. CLIFF BURNETT HASN'T FOUND HIS HORSES.

Mr. Cliff Burnett, who Sunday lost twelve head of horses, failed to locate any of them yesterday, although he drove over a greater portion of Ballard, Carlisle and Graves counties. This morning he started out again and this time will go over the territory in the vicinity of Bardwell.

CRUSHED BY A LOG

Narrow Escape of a Mill Hand Yesterday.

Log Rolled on His Head, But Blocks Stopped It in Time to Prevent Death.

HE IS SOME BETTER TODAY

Cesar McGinnis, a yard employe of the Ferguson & Palmer sawmills at Third and Elizabeth streets, narrowly escaped being crushed to death yesterday afternoon about 6 o'clock by a rolling log which crushed his head.

McGinnis was superintending the log elevator, which is used in drawing up logs to the mill from the yard below. This is a sort of incline and the log is set in position, hooks attached and the timber drawn into the mill by a long wire cable. The hook broke and to keep the log from sliding down McGinnis seized a block and attempted to shove it under the timber. The log jumped up and rolled over on his head, mashing it very badly. Dr. J. T. Trontman was called and found one side of the head badly injured, the ear having been affected. Today the patient is better, but is still suffering. There were several other blocks under the log, which prevented it from coming over on McGinnis with the entire weight, and were all that saved him from a horrible death.

CARNEGIE'S PLANS

FOR THE BENEFIT OF THE WORKINGMEN OF HOMESTEAD.

New York, April 21—Andrew Carnegie was shown the statement made by M. Delar, a member of the S. Alfred Moseley commission of British workmen who visited Homestead during their tour of inspection in America, that "the principal shareholders of the Homestead mill might find Homestead a good place to expend his millions in improving the conditions of the working people. I would for this purpose forego the pleasure of donating libraries to towns in Great Britain."

"Who is this man Delar?" asked Mr. Carnegie.

"He represents the English plasterers' union on the commission," he was told.

"He is simply talking without knowing," said Mr. Carnegie. "When Pittsburgh and Homestead have had the largest share of my gifts and will continue to receive them. I have not slighted the place where my fortune was made. I have got plans in mind now in an educational way that will benefit Homestead more than if I erected museums for the workingmen. It is only by giving the workmen educational opportunities that they can be aided. With education they always improve their condition."

REPUBLICAN COMMITTEE

MEETING MAY BE CALLED THIS WEEK.

Louisville, April 21—Mr. C. M. Barnett, chairman of the Republican state central committee, may call a meeting of the committee for the latter part of this week or the first of next. It was the original intention of the committee not to meet until after the Democratic primary of May 9, but it is reported that several of the leaders think the call for a convention to make nominations should be issued before that time. They argue that the only advantage the party could gain by waiting would be to learn the nominees of the Democratic party, and this will be known anyway before the convention is held.

ADJUDGED INSANE

WAS YOUNG MAN WHO IMPERSONATED GOV. BECKHAM.

Miami, Fla., April 21—The men claiming to be J. C. W. Beckham of Kentucky, and who has been in jail here for months awaiting trial for falsely impersonating Gov. Beckham, has been adjudged insane and left for the Chattahoochee insane asylum. He created a sensation at the time, and owned the city for a week or two before being exposed.

Evangelistic work near. Rev. Edward S. Uford, lately pastor at Williamstown, Mass., and author of "Throw Out the Life Line" and other hymns, has started on a tour around the world, holding evangelistic services at various points as he goes.

FACE BLEACH

FOR

COMPLEXION

I WILL SEND FREE TRIAL BOTTLE OF MY FACE BLEACH TO ANY LADY SENDING NAME AND ADDRESS.

MME. A. RUPPERT, 6 E 14TH ST., New York City

How to Obtain a Lovely

COMPLEXION

Clear and Beautiful

It is every woman's duty to be as youthful and good looking as possible, and there is nothing which adds more beauty than a lovely complexion, and there is no remedy which will restore the complexion and give one that youthful appearance like Mme. A. Ruppert's World Renowned Face Bleach. This grand remedy cleans the skin of every discoloration and impurity, including pimples, freckles, moth patches, brown spots, liver marks, comedones, fresh-worms, black-heads, ulcers, sallowness, roughness and skin diseases. It accomplishes these wonderful effects by drawing the impurities and discolored areas to the surface of the skin and then removing these blemishes gradually scaling off a slight surface of the outer scarf-skin. It does this in so natural a manner as to be entirely harmless to the most delicate complexion, and, having this action, it cannot fail to produce excellent effects.

Most marvelous results are obtained when Face Bleach is used according to my new special directions in conjunction with my Egyptian Balm, which nourishes and feeds the tissues and glands of the skin, and adds the finishing touch which refines, purifies and preserves the skin in its pristine splendor, giving it the glow of youth.

Now, in order that every lady reader of this paper may obtain the highest possible effect from the use of my preparations, I will make the following stupendous offer to all who direct the below address. A bottle of my Face Bleach, a trial jar of my Egyptian Balm, a bar of my most exquisite Almond Oil Complexion Soap, my New Special Directions, my book, "How to be Beautiful," all for $2. The price of Face Bleach alone is $2 per bottle, hence you receive articles absolutely free.

PRESERVING HOME

THE JEWS SAID TO BE DOING BETTER THAN OTHERS.

Washington, April 21—"The Jews are preserving the home and family better than we Christians are doing. I do not know how to account for this, but I do know it to be a fact." Bishop Satterlee of the Episcopal church made this declaration in a sermon here, in which the main subject of his discourse was divorce. He said the bishops are losing respect for the home and caring less for the family, the unit of our civilization. On the shoulders of the husbands and fathers of the land, he continued, rests the responsibility for the low estate to which the family has fallen in this country. This fostered and encouraged the greatest curse of the age—divorce—and the loose manner in which the sacred marriage vows were being kept.

"The great evil—the most frightful danger—of our age is divorce and the breaking down of the family institution," said the bishop. "If it is not stopped the women of this country and our race will be degraded within fifty years."

MAD DOG QUESTION

CHICAGO OFFICIALS TO ATTEND LECTURES TO BE ABLE TO DETECT RABID ANIMALS.

Chicago, April 21—Rabies has reached such dangerous proportions in Chicago that education of policemen in the symptoms of the disease is urged as necessary. It is proposed that lectures on the disease be given, that every patrolman may know rabies when he sees it, and destroy rabid dogs as soon as the first symptoms of "madness" are shown.

Dr. O. A. White, who has made a study of the disease, today volunteered to lecture to policemen on the subject. Dr. A. Legorio also stands ready to give instructions in the symptoms of the disease.

VISIT TO POPE

KING EDWARD MAINTAINS SILENCE, BUT IS EXPECTED TO MEET THE PONTIFF.

Rome, April 21—Whether King Edward will visit the pope continues to be a profound mystery. No official communication on the matter has been received, but the Vatican is of the opinion that King Edward can not fail to meet the pontiff, if for state reasons alone, as his majesty's announced visit to Ireland soon will take place, and should he slight the head of the Roman Catholic church he certainly would arouse the resentment of the 3,000,000 Catholics in Ireland, and for no apparent or practical reason, especially as the feeling in England toward Catholics is now very moderate.

The National Result.
"Yes, sir, we turned in and elected that chap on a reform ticket, and inside of a month he had every one of our fellows put off the pay roll. It was a regular boomerang of an election, by George!" "Well, what else could you expect of the Australian ballot?"—Chicago Tribune.

ESCAPED DEATH

CLOSE CALL OF SEVERAL AIRSHIP PASSENGERS.

Paris, April 21—Four members of the Aero club, who ascended from here in an airship, descended violently at Arles, department of Bouches-du-Rhone, 44 miles northwest of Marseilles, miraculously escaping death. At dawn the balloon, which was at a height of 10,000 feet, was traveling at the rate of 60 miles an hour. The aeronauts, realizing that they were nearing the Mediterranean, determined to descend immediately. They dropped precipitately, and in a few minutes the balloon struck the earth. It rebounded for 300 feet, and finally settled among some telegraph wires, which were broken.

The rapidity of the descent deprived the travelers of all sensation, and completely deafened them. Otherwise they were unhurt. After a rest they returned to Paris by rail. While aloft they encountered a temperature of 5 degrees above zero. Bottles of mineral water were frozen solid.

INTER-NATIONAL W. C. T. U.

LARGE ATTENDANCE AND MANY PROMINENT PEOPLE PRESENT.

Berlin, April 20—Mrs. Mary H. Hunt of Boston, representing the Women's Christian Temperance Union at the international anti-alcohol congress at Bremen, has sent the following communication to the representative here of the Associated Press:

"Bremen, April 21—The international anti-alcohol congress that meets biennially on the continent has closed its ninth session. It has been in the matter of attendance and well-known persons present the most remarkable of any session of the congress. This body of 1,400 delegates, notable in science and in the service of humanity, as university professors or for their hereditary rank, have come here from 15 nations on two hemispheres."

In compliment to the United States Mrs. Hunt presided at Saturday's session of the congress. After the sight-seeing excursions, the delegates separated.

ABOUT 6000.

THIS IS THE ESTIMATE OF THE ARKANSAS' CROWD.

The steamer Dick Fowler while at Cairo yesterday handled the crowds to the monitor Arkansas well, and carried during the day about 3,000 people, as many as both the other boats combined.

The crowd at Cairo to see the vessel was not as large as expected, as hundreds of people were there the Sunday before, when she was expected to stop, and they could not afford to come back yesterday. The monitor had to cut off part of her stack to get under the Illinois Central bridge.

There's Time Yet.

After Years of Sufferings from Acute Nervous Dyspepsia, Paine's Celery Compound

Effects a Happy Cure

Dyspepsia, one of humanity's most cruel enemies, is effectually cured by the use of Paine's Celery Compound. This tormenting disease is caused by acute inflammation of the nerves centered about the stomach. In dyspepsia nervous energy is wasted and the entire digestive organism is deranged. The needs of dyspeptics may be summed up as follows: The great nervous system requires strengthening; the blood now charged with impurities must be cleansed, so that it will flow healthily and in abundance; the stomach, weak and unreliable, must be toned up. Paine's Celery Compound in the springtime will accomplish all that is needed for the dyspeptic sufferer and banish troubles that make daily life unbearable. Mrs. Ada Cochran, Washington, D. C., says:

"I have been for years a sufferer from acute attacks of nervous dyspepsia, and during the past winter I heard so much about your Paine's Celery Compound I decided to try what it would do for me. I used less than two bottles and experienced relief almost from the first dose I took. I did not find it necessary to finish the second bottle. I therefore do not hesitate to add my hearty endorsement to the many thousands of testimonials you already have."

REGARDED AS A GOD

BREAKING OF DROUTH ATTRIBUTED TO PRESIDENT LOUBET'S PRESENCE.

Tlemcen, Algeria, April 21—Although it was intended that Sunday should be a day of rest, President Loubet worked hard in receiving various delegations and a number of native chiefs, including several from tribes on the Moroccan frontier, among whom he distributed decorations and presents. The president inspected the native schools, but the neighborhood excursions which had been planned were prevented by a heavy fall of rain.

As the surrounding region has suffered long from drouth many natives attributed the rainfall to the presence of the ruler of the French republic.

SAVE THE LOVED ONES!

Mrs. Mary A. Villet, Newcasttle, Colo., writes: "I believe Ballard's Horehound Syrup is superior to any other cough medicine, and will do all that is claimed for it, and it is so pleasant to take. My little girl wants to take it when she has no need for it." Ballard's Horehound Syrup is the great cure for all pulmonary ailments. 25c, 50c and $1 at DuBois, Kolb & Co.

BURN THE LAZARETTO.

Mazatlan, Mex., April 21—The board of health in the City of Mexico sent a telegraphic order to burn the lazaretto. It is probable that a new and permanent lazaretto will be built on Belvidere island. It will be a hospital with every modern improvement. Governor Canedo, after a long and heroic service here during the height of the plague, has returned to Culiacan.

Mrs. Thomas Huggles Kitson, the Boston artist, has just finished two bas-reliefs of Japanese artists, which are to be cast in bronze and placed in the Museum of Art at Tokio.

GOVERNOR HERE

He Spent the Evening in Paducah and Will Return Tonight

Is Said to Be Making a Good Impression in This District.

Governor J. W. O. Beckham, of Frankfort, and Chairman Allie Young, of the Democratic state committee, Jack Chinn and his son, Morgan, Judge Ira Julien and a number of other politicians and candidates, arrived last night on the Dick Fowler from Wickliffe where the governor spoke yesterday and remained at the Palmer house last night.

This morning Governor Beckham and most of the others left for Benton, Marshall county, to speak, and will return on the evening train and spend the night at the Palmer. Governor Beckham seems to have good crowds everywhere he goes, according to reports, and some of his friends say he is making such a good impression in the First district that Colonel Hendrick, who claims he will carry the district by a large majority, will wind up his campaign by a week in the First district.

WORK ASSIGNED.

GRADUATING CLASS TO BE READY FOR REHEARSAL MAY 15.

The work for the graduating class has been assigned and the pupils have been instructed to prepare their parts and be ready for rehearsal by the 15th of May. This will give them nearly one month to have rehearsals and work up thoroughly.

The Kentucky has been secured for the commencement and a full orchestra will probably be used, as last year. There will be eight numbers besides the three honors and one of these will be musical. There will be two class choruses. The pupils are taking much interest in the coming event and will all be prepared by the 15 and will make this the best commencement ever held.

Woes of Official's Life.

Mrs. Cortelyou, wife of the secretary of commerce, was asked at a reception given by Mrs. Depew how she liked her part in official life. "My part does not amount to much," she said, "and I do not like the official life of my husband. The best position he ever had was just after we were married, when he was a clerk in the postoffice department. He went to work at 9 and quit at 4. I knew him pretty well then. Since he has been at the white house he goes to his office soon after breakfast. If he comes home to luncheon at all it is in a great hurry, and when he comes home to dinner it is very late. At 10 o'clock he returns to the white house and frequently remains until after midnight. The children hardly know him by sight."

This was before he became a cabinet officer. Now he will have the conventional hours of the department employee, which extend from 9 until 4, with a little addition to the letter hour to give time for signing letters.

BEAUTY AND STRENGTH

Are desirable. You are strong and vigorous, when your blood is pure. Many—men, most—women, fail to properly digest their food, and so become pale, sallow, thin and weak, while the brightness, freshness and beauty of the skin and complexion depart. Remedy this unpleasant evil by eating nourishing food and taking a small dose of Herbine after each meal to digest what you have eaten. 50c at DuBois Kolb & Co.

Her Dream Didn't Come Out.

They had just returned from church, and during a lull in the conversation he drew his chair a little nearer to her and said:

"I am about to ask you a question of no little importance. Are you prepared for it?"

"I am," she replied, bracing herself for something that had long monopolized her most hopeful hopes.

"Will you—" here his voice acquired a few husks and he drew a breath anywhere from six to nine inches long.

"Will you—er—accompany me to the theater to-morrow evening?" he asked.

Her disappointment was something fierce, but she saw the show just the same.

HERBINE CURES

Fever and ague. Ague will usually stop on chili, a continuance of always ennea. Mrs. Wm. M. Stroud, Midlothian, Texas, May 31, writes: "We have used Herbine in our family for eight years, and found it the best medicine we have ever used, for la grippe, bilious fever, and malaria." 50c at DuBois, Kolb & Co.

Fit and Style

There are some things which can't be improved. One of these things is the "Queen Quality" shoe for women.

You can make it more elaborate, you can decorate it, embellish it, use costly materials and all that. But for $100 a pair than "Queen Quality," having regard solely to the two great essentials of fit and style.

This means that mechanically it is perfect. As for its appearance, the fact that one hundred thousand women choose it instantly above all other shoes would seem to indicate that it is attractive. Why don't you go so far as to try on a pair the next time you go to the store? It costs nothing to see them fit your foot.

WASTING THE PEOPLE'S TIME.

A steam heating system is either a good thing for a city and the people who prefer to use its product, or it is a bad thing. If it is a bad thing, no city should permit one, and Paducah should not have sold the franchise. If it is a good thing on the other hand and as the city sold the franchise and allowed the company to do a great deal of work here which has been somewhat unpleasant and inconvenient for the public, the presumption is that it is a good thing, and the city should do everything possible to have the system put in complete and expeditiously at the start.

Instead of this, it has shown a disposition to prevent the system crossing Fourth street, after it has crossed Second, Third and Fifth. If the people along Fourth street are entitled to use steam heat if they desire, the means should be provided now, while the system is being built. If it is not done now but later on, it will have to be done before Fourth street is paved, or torn up after it is paved. If it is not to be excavated at all, it means that the people of that thoroughfare will be denied a privilege that is accorded other citizens in the business portion of the city, that of using steam heat, and will be a discrimination not justified by common sense, economy, or anything else.

This refusal of the council to grant the permission asked by the heating company is only another grand stand play. Some of the great patriots in the board doubtless want the people to think they are heat over cars in love with the people, because they want the people to put their "tute some office. To tear up Fourth street as the heating company suggests will without doubt be disagreeable to the people for a week or two, but it will then be over with, and will put them to no more trouble than when Broadway was crossed at the other three intersections, while the heating system will then be installed in a locality that is one of the most important in the city. There is only one way to look at the question. Either the pipes should be laid now, or not at all. If the work is delayed until just before the street is paved, which will be several months, it would be none the less inconvenient then. Delaying it until after the street is paved and doing it then is entirely out of the question, and if it is not permitted at all, the people of that locality will be deprived of the benefits of the heating system, which would be entirely unwarranted and very unjust. If the city council would stop its horse play and get down to business, the people would be a great deal better off. Those officials who are trying to pose as mighty warriors for the people ought to cut it out. They make a failure, and with their ignorance and prejudice become the worst enemies the people have.

There is too much playing to the gallery in the legislative board of Paducah. The overweening desire of certain members to pose as "the friend of the people" prompts them to do many foolish, disgusting and injurious things. They imagine they have to make some long winded speech and talk about the poor down trodden public or some other such rot at every meeting. They take up time, make intelligent people tired, and never accomplish anything. If any one is inclined to doubt it, let him examine the records and find anything important that the present city council has ever done in the year and a half it has been in office. It has done nothing but talk, talk, talk. It passes an ordinance and then spends a month or two amending it. Committees appointed months ago have never reported. The gentlemen evidently mean well, but they were simply not cut out for the positions they hold. Their record proves it, and the manner in which they consume the time at their meetings proves it.

April 3 is to be a great holiday in Missouri. It will be the centennial anniversary of the acquisition of the Louisiana purchase, which gave us one of the largest and best territories included in our great nation. It was originally intended that the world's fair at St. Louis would open on this date, but the gigantic undertaking could not be completed, and the dedication will take place instead, and thousands of people will be there to participate in and witness the ceremonies. Governor Dockery has issued a proclamation asking the people to suspend as far as possible their usual avocations and help make the dedication one of the most glorious events in the history of the nation. And the indications are that it will be.

The railroads announce that while the crops promise to be larger than ever this year, no blockade of traffic such as that recently experienced is anticipated. One reason is that the rolling stock of all the larger roads is being rapidly increased, and another is that the terminal facilities have been improved and enlarged and more system has been introduced in the handling of traffic, and returning empty cars. This goes to show that the railroads have learned a lesson, and expect to profit by it.

Chicago policemen are to be given an educational course in rabies, in order that they may know a mad dog at sight. If they attain any proficiency they will be very accomplished rascals indeed. A great many things make dogs act in a curious manner, and if a Chicago copper can learn to tell whether a dog is mad or only laboring temporarily under the application of "defekt" he deserves something better than a job on the police force.

Col. Henry Watterson, according to dispatches, has gone to Washington to attend a meeting of Democrats whose mission is to "unite on a candidate for the presidency." If Col. Watterson can assist the Democrats to unite on anything he will certainly accomplish a wonder. It should be considered, however, that Mayor Carter Harrison of Chicago is willing to be offered as a sacrifice. His boom was launched at Chicago Sunday afternoon.

The city has a chance to compromise the bond damage suit for $4,000. The city broke its contract and was sued for $10,000, and if it can save $10,000 by paying $4,000, it should do it. It once had a chance to compromise it for $500 but refused, and as the bonds were declared legal, there was no reason the city should not have complied with its contract, and it might now be to the interest of the city to effect a compromise.

It is getting so a man must stay out of politics in Missouri to save both his liberty and his reputation.

HE TOOK A DAY OFF

ELDER'S EXPLANATION OF HIS FALL FROM GRACE.

Had Been a Faithful Member of the Church for Forty-six Years, and Finally Succumbed to the Wiles of Satan.

Irving Bachelder can always tell a story of the north country, and this is one of them.

"Up in St. Lawrence county," he said, "there was a God-fearing old man who lived in a small village a few miles from Putnam. Mr. Parker was an elder in the church, a good husband and father, and a worthy citizen, who was much respected in the community. One day he hitched up his team and went off with a load of produce from his farm to Putnam. Night fell, but Parker did not return. His family was much frightened, for such a thing had never happened before, and they felt sure that some evil had befallen him. His son went to Putnam and called at all his father's accustomed haunts, only to find that the old man had sold his potatoes and started for home before dark.

"The family remained in great distress all night and until the next afternoon, when Mr. Parker drove in at the big farm gate. The old man's clothes were torn, his face bruised, a small portion of his front scalp was missing, and his horse was broken-winded and all of a lather. He vouchsafed no explanation, but betook himself to bed, where he slept for fourteen hours, waking with a rich brown taste in his mouth.

"The matter got noised abroad, and eventually the minister and a brother elder called upon him.
"Brother Parker," said the minister solemnly, "it appears to us that some explanation is due the church of events which have recently transpired, and we have called to see if you have anything to say about them."
"The old man pondered awhile, and then asked: 'How long hev I been a member of this church, boy and man?'"

"Forty-six years, my brother."
"How I walked in the ways of the Lord pretty perpendicular during that time?"
"Yes, Brother Parker, you have served long and faithfully."
"Well," said the old man, "I thought so, too, 'n' I just thought I'd take a day off."—New York Times.

Signs of a Mild Winter.
Signs of the times point to a mild winter. Wooden nutmegs are plentiful in Connecticut, New York squirrels are not storing winter supplies, redheaded corn is unusually plentiful in Illinois, goose bones presage a wintry season in Iowa, and this festive groundhog is merrily chasing his shadow in Nebraska.—Omaha Bee.

DIDN'T KNOW THE FOOD SHE USED LACKED BUILDING MATERIAL.

Proper food brought a woman and her child out of sickness into health. A lady living in Madison, Wis., relates her experience, which certainly is interesting.

She says: "For about fifteen months I was an invalid and a part of that time caring for a little baby girl. Different physicians said I had heart trouble, torpid liver, nervous prostration and female trouble. Finally I was sent down to Chicago to my uncle, a good old physician. He said the difficulty all came from my not being able to build up from the kind of food I had been using.

"I had run down from 130 pounds to 95 and had about made up my mind I would never get well. He put me on a diet of Grape-Nuts with good cream and Graham crackers. A little stale bread when I wanted it, and butter, but no meat and no molasses.

"In two months I got so I could sleep sound where before I used to walk the floor all night. My sick feelings left me and I began to get well. I wanted the baby, but she was very sickly and puny. The doctor said it would be a wonder if we ever raised her. Grape-Nuts had done so much for me I concluded to put her on the food, and get a coffee mill to grind it in and gave it to her with good cream. She picked up very quickly and began to gain flesh and strength. Now she has a round, rosy face, is perfectly healthy, out doors all day and hungry all the time. I am grateful to the makers of the food that has saved my life and given strength and health to my little girl." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

Social Notes and About People.

CHESS, CHECKER AND WHIST SMOKER.

The Chess, Checker and Whist club, the only successful social club ever organized in Paducah, will tomorrow night give a smoker and the following are the invitations being sent out to the friends of the club members: Paducah Chess, Checker and Whist club.

The infant and boyhood stages have been safely passed and as we approach a vigorous young manhood help us to celebrate the event with a smoker next Wednesday evening, April 22, from 8 to 12. Though the program will be largely impromptu, and the fun spontaneous, we expect the spirit of revelry to lead us to haddin', mirth, music and song.

Be with us and the "Glad Hand" and other competitors will do the rest.

E. SARTOR,
H. DIEHL,
N.W. VAN OULIN, Committee.

The club boasts of members in all professions and the membership is now nearly 100. Several musicians of prominence here are members and will play numbers on the program which is, as explained in the invitation, impromptu.

WAS ALMOST MUTINY

Seamen Object to Steel Rooms on Kearsarge.

They Say Their Life and Health are Endangered.

New York, April 21—A very serious condition of affairs has arisen on the United States battleship Kearsarge, and matters have almost reached the stage of open mutiny as a result of accommodations and equipment of the new man-of-war, which the seamen consider unsatisfactory, and even hazardous to their life and limb.

Today three seamen were brought in from the Kearsarge by the Indiana, all of whom are under sentence to the Boston naval prison for a breach of rules. Three, six and seven years are the sentences hanging over their heads, and they will be sent immediately to Boston to serve out the terms of their confinement.

The navy officials say that serious trouble and almost open mutiny has arisen among the Kearsarge's men on account of the poor accommodations which they claim the vessel affords. The men say that their quarters are no better than a prison, and claim that the Kearsarge is the first man-of-war ever built in which the crew's quarters are steel rooms, where no wood work in any form has been placed. It is claimed by the men that the new turret scheme works very serious injury to those compelled to remain below in these steel rooms when the large guns are fired over their heads.

Numerous desertions have been noted of late among the seamen on account of the condition of affairs complained of, and matters reached a crisis when the three men who were brought in today, openly rebelled and refused to continue in the service of the ship.

The Ferarri Carnival O., which is to be here May 11 to 16, is said to be the cleverest and largest aggregation of its kind in the world, and will have sixteen big attractions, all at a very small price of admission. One of the cleverest features of the whole company is the Royal Lilliputian Court, in which a performance is given by Lilliputians. It is comical to see the tiny little fellows go through their performances and to note the ease and grace with which they say their lines, sing their songs and do their dances.

It is a matter of wonder where the Feraris ever got hold of so many midgets. It is not considered unusual to see one or two of them, but when you see a whole troupe of little persons fully developed and not much larger than a 3 year old child performing a series of difficult songs and dances and clever comedy work one begins to wonder at the versatility of the Feraris and wonder where they managed to get them all together and indeed it has taken years of gathering to do it. They pick up one here and another there, and it is said if Col. Ferarri hears of a dwarf in any part of the globe he immediately journeys hither and if there is any possibility of histrionic ability in him he will have it developed at once.

The Royal Lilliputian Court is a troupe of considerable ability and size and is said to be the cleverest on the road. Their performance is said to merit a much larger price of admission than is charged. It is said that next season the Feraris are to take them on the road in a new play written by Francis Ferarri which is said to be of considerable merit. It is hoped that everybody will give the little ones a cordial reception and will turn out. Already people in the small towns near have been inquiring about excursions, etc., so that there is no doubt that what this carnival will be a huge success and that we will be able to repeat it every year.

ALL BUT THIRD BASEMAN.
The professional ball team here is complete except for the third baseman and Manager Jackson will probably sign one this week. He is now clearing for a baseman and will sign one as soon as possible.

trip at 2 this afternoon.

The John S. Hopkins arrived early this morning from Evansville and departed on time this morning at 10 o'clock on return trip.

The Dick Fowler left on time this morning for Cairo.

Mr. Frank Kennedy, of the Fowler, has resigned to go on the Memphis as first mate.

News of the death of Mrs. Cath-line Farragut, at Beavert, Pa., has been received here. She was the wife of a well known steamboat man and is known here.

Captain A. G. Leacke, of Indianapolis, a former well known river man and John Ingle, McPherson, Harry

Gilbert of Evansville, and Theodore

Steger, of Golconda, made the round trip on the Hopkins today.

The Inverness was yesterday inspected and will go out shortly to

The Summers arrived from Tennessee this morning with ties.

Captain George Derrickson, of the Derrickson & Day boat store, of St.

Louis, has a solid silver sugar bowl found in the wreck of the steamer

Pittsburg, which was burned near Paducah about a year ago. The bowl was somewhat damaged by the fire.

It was found by Captain Harry Leybe.

The new steel double-hulled ferryboat Alex M. Halliday, has been completed by Ed Howard and she is now ready to leave for New Orleans, where she will run between that city and Algiers. The boat is a fine specimen of workmanship. She has one bow, two hulls, and a wheel between the hulls.

She is 120 feet long, and each of the hulls is 16 feet wide and 7 feet deep.

She is 60 feet wide on deck over all.

Her boiler is 26 feet long, 44 inches diameter, and her engines each 16-inch cylinder and 6-foot stroke. The Halliday is a model of her kind and a beauty withal. She will pass Paducah in a few days.

The lighthouse steamer, Joseph

Henry, is at Memphis, having made her last trip. A new boat will be built to take her place. Nearly twenty-five years ago the Joseph Henry was constructed at Jeffersonville, Ind., and has plied the Mississippi river in the lighthouse service ever since. Her days are numbered, however, and a few more weeks will terminate her faithful loyalty to Uncle Sam. The ravages of time have condemned the old craft, and regardless of years of toll she must be dismissed from service and sold to the highest bidder.

When she was first built the boat plied in the waters from St. Paul to New Orleans, including the Missouri river.

In 1897 the Sixteenth lighthouse district was created and the boat covered the territory between Cairo and New Orleans. She originally cost $47,000.

A DAUGHTER OF THE SIOUX

General Charles King's recent novel
"A Daughter of the Sioux" looks none of the strong dramatic situations for which he is noted. It is a tale of the Indian frontier and has all the vividness, military swing and mystery play of which he is the past-master. The scene is laid at Fort Frayne and you meet many earlier friends, and once more see what fighting is under nonchalant "Bully" Ray and Gerald Blake. It is during the Sioux uprising under Lame Wolf in the '80's, and there are many complications involved which make the story. The chain of circumstantial evidence woven about the hero presents an amazing tangle, that holds the reader's interest throughout. King always makes you proud of Uncle Sam's army, and he gives some well-timed proofs to the "peace societies" at home, who, then and now, know nothing about the true inwardness of things. The little story weaves its own romance and is better read than told. There is much of interest clustering about the little garrison life of the post, and their fine courage wins your applause.

It is just the sort of story to suit a Remington illustration, and he and Edward Willard Denning have pictured it well and typically, and have added to the interest of the story and the excellent make-up of the book.
The Hobart company, publishers,
New York City.

Good Listeners Rare.
Listening is at once the rarest and most charming gift a woman can possess, says the Chicago Record Herald.
The mysterious influence that Cleopatra exerted over Anthony has made the world wonder, for the Egyptian was not beautiful. But it is plain enough when one remembers how she inclined her little ears to hear the stories of his victories. This trait reached high art with Josephine. It was only when she ceased to listen and began to talk that she lost favor with Napoleon. Given a fair field and a chance to prove herself an appreciative listener, the plainest girl can win honors in a contest with beauty to nine cases out of ten.

Boyhood Dream Realized.
John D. Rockefeller, head of the Standard Oil corporation, has been elected to honorary membership in the fire patrol of North Tarrytown, N. Y. When he received the official document notifying him of the honor conferred the multimillionaire came as near to looking pleasant as he can and he remarked with some pride: "Now is the boyhood dream of my life realized. I am a fireman at last, after nearly sixty years of patient waiting. No policeman can now fan me outside the fire lines in North Tarrytown, at least, he tried it!

WHEN KNIGHTHOOD WAS IN FLOWER

Or, The Love Story of Charles Brandon and Mary Tudor, the King's Sister, and Happening in the Reign of His August Majesty King Henry the Eighth

Re-written and Rendered into Modern English from Sir Edwin Caskoden's Memoir

By EDWIN CASKODEN [CHARLES MAJOR]

Copyright, 1901 and 1902, by The Doren-Merrill Company

Jane wept all the way over, but Mary never minded.

There were great mudholes where one sank ankle deep, for no one paved the street at that time, strangely enough, preferring to pay the sixpence fine per square yard for leaving it undone. At one place, Brandon told me, a load of hay blocked the streets, compelling them to squeeze between the houses and the hay. He could hardly believe the girls had passed that way, as he had not always been able to keep them in view, but had sometimes to follow them by watching Buckingham. He, however, kept as close as possible and presently saw them turn down Grouche's alley and enter his house.

Upon learning where they had stopped, Buckingham hurriedly took himself off, and Brandon waited for the girls to come out. It seemed a very long time that they were in the wretched place, and darkness had well descended upon London when they emerged.

Mary soon noticed that a man was following them, and as she did not know who he was became greatly alarmed. The object of her journey had been accomplished now, so the specter of a strong motive to keep her courage up was lacking.

"Jane, some one is following us," she whispered.

"Yes," answered Jane, with an unconcern that surprised Mary, for she knew Jane was a coward from the top of her brown head to the tip of her little pink heels.

"Oh, if I had only taken your advice, Jane, and had never come to this wretched place! And to think, too, that I came here only to learn the worst! Shall we ever get home alive, do you think?"

They hurried on, the man behind them taking less care to remain unseen than he did when coming. Mary's fears grew upon her as she heard his step and saw his form persistently following them, and she clutched Jane by the arm.

"It is all over with us, I know. I would give everything I have or ever expect to have on earth for—Master Brandon at this moment." She thought of him as the one person best able to defend her.

This was only too welcome an opportunity, and Jane said: "That is Master Brandon following us. If we wait a few seconds, he will be here." And she enticed to him before Mary could interpose.

Now this disclosure operated in two ways. Brandon's presence was, it is true, just what Mary had so ardently wished, but the danger and therefore the need was gone when she found that the man who was following them had no evil intent. Two thoughts quickly flashed through the girl's mind. She was angry with Brandon for having cheated her out of so many favors and for having slighted her love, as she had succeeded in convincing herself was the case, all of which Grouche had confirmed by telling her he was false. Then she had been discovered in doing what she knew she should have left undone and what she was anxious to conceal from every one, and, worst of all, had been discovered by the very person from whom she was most anxious to hide it.

So she turned upon Jane angrily: "Jane! You told me, you shall leave me as soon as you get back to Greenwich for this betrayal of my confidence."

She was not afraid now that the danger was over, and feared no new danger with Brandon at hand to protect her, for in her heart she felt that to overcome a few fiery dragons and a company or so of punts would be a mere pantomime to him. Yet she how she treated him. The girl had stepped in when Jane called to her, and he was at once by her side with his sword held, keeping forward of her as if expecting a warm welcome. But even Brandon, with his fund of worldly philosophy, had not learned not to put his trust in princesses, and his surprise was becoming when Mary turned angrily upon him.

"Master Brandon, your impudence in following us shall cost you dearly. We do not desire your company, and will thank you to leave us to our own affairs, as we wish you to attend exclusively to yours."

This from the girl who had given him so much within less than a week! Poor Brandon!

Jane, who had called him up and was the cause of his following them, began to weep.

"Sir," said she, "forgive me. It was not my fault. She had just said: 'Slap came Mary's hand on Jane's mouth, and Jane was marched off, weeping bitterly.

The girls had started up toward East Cheap when they left Grouche's, intending to go home by an upper route, and now they walked rapidly in that direction. Brandon continued to follow them, notwithstanding what Mary had said, and she thanked him and her God ever after that he did.

They had been walking not more than five minutes when, just as the girls turned a corner into a secluded little street, winding its way among the fish warehouses, four horsemen passed Brandon in evident pursuit of them. Brandon hurried forward, but screams of fright and as he turned in the street distinctly saw that two of the men had dismounted and were trying to overtake the fleeing girls. Fright lent wings to their feet, and their short skirts affording freedom to their limbs, they were giving the pursuers a warm little race, screaming at every step to the full limit of their voices. How they did run and scream! It was but a moment till Brandon came up with the pursuers, who, all unconscious that they in turn were pursued, did not expect an attack from the rear. The men remaining on horseback shouted a shout to their comrades, but so intent were the latter in their pursuit that they did not heed. One of the men on foot fell dead, pierced through the back of the neck by Brandon's sword, before either was aware of his presence. The other turned, but was a corpse before he could cry out. The girls had stopped a short distance ahead, exhausted by their flight. Mary had stumbled and fallen, but had risen again, and both were now leaning against a wall, clinging to each other, a picture of abject terror. Brandon ran to the girls, but by the time he reached them the two men on horseback were there also, backing away at him from their saddles. Brandon did his best to save himself from being cut to pieces and the girls from being trampled under foot by the prancing horses.

One of the men on foot fell dead.

A narrow jutting of the wall, a foot or two in width, a sort of flying buttress, gave him a little advantage, and up into the slight shelter of the corner thus formed he thrust the girls and with his back to them faced his unequal foe with drawn sword. Fortunately the position allowed only one horseman to attack them. Two men on foot would have been less in each other's way and much more effective. The men, however, stuck to their horses, and one of them pressed the attack, striking at Brandon most viciously. It being dark and the distance deceptive, the horseman's sword at last struck the wall, a dash of sparks flying in its trail, and lucky it was or this story would have ended here. Thereupon Brandon thrust his sword into the horse's throat, causing it to rear backward, plunging and lunging into the street, where it fell, holding its rider by the leg against the cobblestones of a little gutter.

A cry from the fallen horseman brought his companion to his side and gave Brandon an opportunity to escape with the girls. Of this he took advantage, you may be sure, for one of his notions was that the greatest fool in the world is he who does not early in life learn how and when to run.

In the light of the sparks from the sword stroke upon the wall, brief as it was, Brandon recognized the face of Buckingham, from which the mask had fallen. Of this he did not speak to any one till long afterward, and his silence was almost his undoing.

How often a word spoken or unspoken may have the very chance in it either way!

The girls were nearly dead from fright, and in order to make any sort of progress Brandon had to carry the princess and help Jane until he thought they were out of danger. Jane soon recovered, but Mary did not seem anxious to walk and lay with her head upon Brandon's shoulder, apparently contented enough.

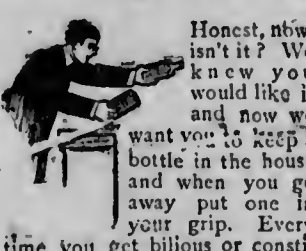

In a few minutes Jane said: "If you can walk now, my lady, I think you had better. We shall soon be near Fishmonger's hall, where some one is sure to be standing at this hour."

Mary said nothing in reply to Jane, but as Brandon fell a step or two behind at a narrow crossing whispered:

(TO BE CONTINUED.)

How to Keep Young.
One of the secrets of keeping young, vigorous and supple-jointed is to continue to practice the activities of youth and to refuse to allow the mind to stiffen the muscles by its suggestion of age limitations. If men like Peter Cooper and William E. Gladstone, who kept up the vitalizing exercises of robust manhood when far into the eighties, had succumbed at 40 to the thought of approaching age, how much of their value to the world would have been lost.

GREAT STUFF!

Honest, now, isn't it? We knew you would like it and now we want you to keep a bottle in the house and when you go away put one in your grip. Every time you get bilious or constipated and whenever you have a sick headache or a touch of indigestion—take a teaspoonful of

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin

Try it on the baby too—it will cry for more.

Hon. Thos. F. Tipton, Bloomington, Ill., writes: "When in Mexico last spring trying a law suit, Mr. Hoyt, a friend of mine, told me of Syrup Pepsin and advised me to try it. I did so and used a bottle and have used several bottles since. It has given me great relief, and I would not be without a bottle at hand, as I think it a very valuable preparation for the stomach, and have no objection to your using my name as an endorsement of this, what I regard a great remedy for stomach trouble. I had tried many doctors and about every remedy that was prescribed by friends and must say that Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin has done me more good than all I have ever tried."

"Lightness of a Dorothy Dodd"

On the Scales

A great many interesting facts may be discovered with a pair of scales, but it is doubtful if any single fact will be more interesting and valuable to the average woman than the weight of her shoes.

For this tells her the number of ounces that must be lifted thousands of times each day, and a little calculation will show that she lifts tons of shoe leather a day—no small labor in itself.

The "Dorothy Dodd" shoe saves the lifting of more than one and one-half tons every day. A pair of "Dorothy Dodd" shoes are several ounces lighter than ordinary shoes. The feet are just so much more comfortable, and you are so much less tired. Put a pair to the test!

CHIEF CROW TALKS

Says Criticism of Him Was Not Justified.

Explains How People Are Accommodated in Some Cases.

Marshal James Crow, who was criticized last night by Councilmen Hummel, says that either the manner of collecting marshal's fees and costs was not understood, or else it was misrepresented.

He says that oftentimes a man is arrested for some offense, and wants to get away from town, or does not desire to have any trial, but simply to plead guilty. In such cases the fine is sometimes agreed on by the marshal and attorney, and the amount of fine and costs fixed the same as if the forms of law were fully followed out and the witnesses summoned and the case tried, and the money left with the marshal by the accused, who is often far away by the time the case is called out the fine formally assessed by the court on motion of the attorney. This, according to the marshal, is only done for the accommodation of the prisoner, and always with his consent. He could remain and have a trial if he preferred, which would probably cost him as much, if not more, besides the time he would have to lose. If he prefers it the other way, Marshal Crow contends no one has been imposed on or done an injustice.

This is most frequently true in cases for drunkenness. The fine is always the same, $1 and costs, about $1.65 in all, and if a man wants to leave the money and end the case, saving time and a trial, he has always been accorded the privilege of leaving the money.

MILITIA INSPECTION

MAJOR BASSETT WILL BE HERE TOMORROW EVENING FROM HOPKINSVILLE.

Major E. B. Bassett of Hopkinsville, major of the Second battalion, Third regiment, K. S. G., will be here tomorrow evening to inspect the local military company, and after the work at the armory is complete the major will be informally entertained at Lagomarsino's by the commissioned officers of the Wheeler Guards.

Governor Beckham has been invited to attend, but has not accepted, and it is probable will be unable to do so, as he will not be here.

GO TO FRANKFORT.

CITY CLERK PATTERSON WILL REPRESENT PADUCAH.

Mayor Yelzer has appointed Mr. William Patterson, clerk of the two boards, a committee to go to Frankfort and protest against the raise in the county assessment before the state board of equalization tomorrow. Those appointed from the county by Judge Lightfoot are Justices Young, Thomson, Sears, Barber and Gholsen. Justice Young cannot go, but the remainder will probably all go. They will leave tonight and arrive in Frankfort tomorrow.

THANKSGIVING SERVICES.

According to agreement a committee from each of the three Odd Fellow lodges, colored, of the city held a meeting at the Odd Fellow hall on Adams street Friday evening, April 17, preparatory to their thanksgiving services to be on the second Sunday in May. The meeting was called to order by James Marable of lodge No. 1515, who thereupon briefly stated the object of the meeting to be thanksgiving. On motion a permanent organization was effected. H. B. Davis was elected chairman of the joint committee, James Marable secretary, O. H. McGowan vice chairman and Joseph Matlock treasurer, after which they went to an election of a place to hold the service. Washington street Baptist church was nominated and duly elected. Rev. J. W. Hawkins was elected to preach the sermon, with Rev. W. S. Baker as alternate. J. A. Morton was elected master of ceremonies, H. B. Davis master of reception, Edward Allen chaplain, Jas. Marable chorister and marshal of the day. Ernest Grubbs and Chas. Short were made invitation and solicitation committee; O. A. Isbell, W. H. Mansfield and Fritill were appointed to raise the thanksgiving offering. The friends of the order and the public are very cordially invited to be present and witness the service, same to commence at 2:30 o'clock p. m.

Theatrical Notes.

"A Gambler's Daughter" was presented to a fair-sized audience last night at The Kentucky and the production was even better than when presented here early in the season. There were only two new members and these were improvements over the old. Several excellent specialties were introduced in the third act, which met with the hearty applause of the entire audience. The show as a whole is one of the best ever seen here. The action is quick and there are no dull lines in the whole range of the production. This is the second time the play has been presented here.

A full rehearsal of the K. P. concert band will be held tonight in the hall and all members are requested to be present. This will be followed by a full rehearsal of the band, orchestra and choral society Wednesday and Thursday nights, and the promoters of the concert intend to give the best concert ever attempted in Paducah with the aid of local talent exclusively.

Mr. Terrence Cooney, the well-known cornetist, will play a cornet solo at the K. P. band concert Friday night at The Kentucky. Mr. Cooney is one of the best cornetists in the country, and this feature of the concert is alone worth the price of admission and Mr. Cooney's friends will no doubt be out in force to hear him.

Rehearsals of Prof. Harry Gilbert's Choral club give promise that the numbers that they will render at the concert to be given at the Kentucky theater Friday night will prove in themselves a musical treat well worth the cost of admission to any lover of vocal ensemble singing.

ATTEMPT TO ESCAPE

Convicts Make Effort to Secure Their Liberty.

Knocked a Trusty in the Head with a Hammer.

Columbus, O., April 21—A desperate but unsuccessful attempt was made by John McGowan, a life prisoner, and Jesse Grant, a ten year man, both from Cleveland, to escape from the penitentiary yesterday afternoon. It was at first thought a general outbreak among the prisoners had been planned, and a riot alarm was sent to police headquarters. A squad of patrolmen was hurried to the prison, but their services were not needed.

McGowan and Grant both had revolvers, which had been smuggled into the prison. Walking into a room in the stamp shop, where they had secured a ladder, they ordered the half dozen "trusties" employed there to lay down. All but Charles Parrish, a five year man, complied, and he was knocked senseless with a hammer.

The two men then compelled one of the trusties to carry the ladder to the wall nearby. As they were about to scale the wall Grant appeared and a fusillade of shots were exchanged, none of which took effect. McGowan and Grant were taken into custody and placed in solitary confinement.

It is not believed that Parrish's injuries are serious.

GUESTS JUMPED.

Grand Rapids, Wis., April 21—The Dixon hotel was gutted by fire. The fire started from the furnace, which was completely enveloped when discovered.

Several of the guests escaped by jumping from the third story windows. The loss is heavy. Many guests lost all their baggage.
